

Home > Environment

Employment for tribal communities through tree plantation drives by India CSR Network — 2 months ago in Environment, Prime Tribal and indigenous cultures in the world have played a critical role in conserving biodiversity and natural habitats since the beginnings of civilization. Nature is considered sacred and intrinsic to human subsistence by most indigenous populations who conserve ecosystems and sources of food like roots, tubers, seeds . . .